

Nine-year-old recovering from gang-rape

By Our Staff Reporter

KARACHI, Jan 1: The condition of a nine-year-old girl, who was gang-raped on Thursday, is improving.

According to Gynae-I Unit of the Civil Hospital where the girl was brought from her residence, a hut in Darakhshan, is stabilising.

The criminals involved in the gang-rape are yet to be arrested.

According to police, the girl had been living with her brother-in-law in a hut near Khayaban-i-Mujahid and her father had gone to Rahimyar Khan for some work.

On Thursday when she was alone at her home, three persons entered the house and gang-raped her. The culprits fled the place leaving the girl unconscious.

The police claimed to have registered a case against unknown culprits and were searching for them.
